Dear Mr. Lowndes

I received your of 23rd May acknowledging the receipt of Check re by (this morning's mail in which you stated that on this day you was to deliver your Graduating Speech, and I assure you though in a distant Land you was not forgotten, and I hope you came off as well as you would wish. If our wishes were of any service to you, I assure you you did,

Father Mother and family are all well. Lamar and vicinity is very healthy this season, the weather is very warm, and the crops can't be beat. Robert has as fine a prospect as I ever saw for a good crop. he has a piece of cotton, planted in March, which is said to be the best in the country, but there is no telling how it will turn out, though we are burning of anticipation. We live in hope if we die in despair,

Allison Rebecca Ella and Shubal are all well, you may be proud of your little niece & nephew, for I assure you

They can't be beat the world over, Mary and Amelia are taking lesson in the Piano and are progressing very rapidly, D. Kelt is going to school and learning very well. Frank poor little fellow, hasn't grown a particle that I can perceive since you saw him, though he is as industrious a boy as you ever saw, Arthura is not going to school, but she can out sew any child you ever saw,

Wm S. Marshaw & John W. Mallory left this place the 27th April for Virginia to buy negroes &c and promised to call and see you but as you have stated nothing about them in your letter, I guess they did not go by Chapel Hill. We have not heard from Uncle Birtul for some time, Uncle Rutin is as well as usual,

Give our best love to Uncle John and family, Hamit Craig &c.

Write soon and give us your experience since the 1st May,

I remain as ever

Your Affectionate Brother
A. B. Inadwell
